

STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

As a credible institution that strives to sustain its credibility and provide quality services to our cliental within a conducive training - learning environment, we want to make sure that discipline is not compromised and that our students abide by the institutional rules and regulations set for them as per the following:

As a student you must:

1. Not take part in any activity that may cause damage or lost of property to MDI or injury to any individual being a student or employee of MDI.
2. Desist from fighting, quarrelling, stealing or any act that may jeopardize student to student or student to Trainer/staff relationships
3. Not use, sell or be in possession of prohibited drugs on campus. Any student found using, selling or in possession of any prohibited drug will meet the full force of the law and expulsion from the Institute.
4. Complement the institution's efforts in making the environment conducive for training and learning by not littering the campus which is strictly forbidden.
5. Strictly observe the dress code which is a key determinant of your comportment and professionalism. The dress code for MDI is either traditional or formal as mentioned earlier.
6. Respect and obey the instructions from the Trainers and to conform to the Rules and Regulations of the Institute.
7. Participate in extra-curricular activities
8. Participate in activities organized by the student union

9. Not forge or falsify any documents
10. Not Insult any faculty member, staff or any person engaged by the institution.
11. Pay the required fees in accordance with the terms and conditions.

EXAMINATION MALPRACTICES/OFFENCES

12. The following shall not be accepted as reasons for being absent on any paper at MDI;

- Misreading the timetable
- Forgetting the date or time of the examination
- Inability to locate the examination hall
- Inability to rouse oneself from sleep in time for the examination
- Failure to find transport

13. Taking into the examination room or possessing whilst in the room, any books, duffle bags, cellular phone, brief case, hand bags or any other material which has not been authorised.

14. The use of any answer book, writing or blotting paper other than supplied.

15. Written information or possessing written information regardless or relevance, on any part of a candidate body during examination

16. Talking to colleagues during exams and failing to follow instructions from the invigilator

17. Breach of a provision of the regulations made for the conduct of MDI examination may attract one or more of the following

- a reprimand;
- loss of mark;
- cancellation of a paper in which case zero shall be substituted for the mark earned;
- Withholding of results for a period;
-

Further sanctions may lead to;

- Being barred from MDI examinations for a stated period
- Being barred from MDI examination indefinitely
- Expulsion from MDI

NOTE: MDI reserves the right to change to change the student code of conduct without prior notice on regulation and policies as well as programmes and courses.